Location

Located close to the Lake District and the border with Scotland, Carlisle has a lively and friendly atmosphere combined with a great outdoor life close by.

The city offers a wide choice of facilities and social activities including trendy bars, pubs, restaurants and clubs, a cinema complex, a theatre, live music venues, several sporting venues and great shopping.

Fusehill Street

Fusehill Street campus is a mix of red-brick Victorian and modern architecture. It is a ten-minute walk from the city centre and is the base for a wide variety of courses. The Learning Gateway building at Fusehill Street is a great facility with its mix of lecture rooms, work and chill-out areas allowing you to make the best use of your study time. There is also a sports centre and modern accommodation on campus.

By road

From the east, approach Carlisle from the A69.

From the north or south leave the M6 at junction 43 for Carlisle (A69). Head into Carlisle along Warwick Road. Turn left at the third set of traffic lights into Greystone Road then turn right into Fusehill Street. The campus is the second entrance on the right. Please note that parking is limited.

By rail

Carlisle is on the main west coast rail line from London to Glasgow and also has a direct, cross-country connection to Newcastle. The campus is a 15-minute walk, or short taxi ride, from the railway station.
