

Additional Costs

All students need to be aware that they will incur additional costs whilst on programme. The list below will provide you with an overview of additional costs. Books are reviewed annually and are therefore subject to change, course welcome information will provide you with an indicative list for the year.

Course:	FdSc Project Management
Books and Journals	All appropriate text books are made available through the University library, where possible through e-books to aid the ease of use. If students do wish to purchase their own copies they can, but this is not a requirement for access to the programme.
Stationery	Students will incur costs for stationery and printing and other basic materials whilst on course and should budget accordingly. Where specifics are required they will be detailed below but items denoted are an outline rather than indicative list. Stationery for your own personal use (pens, papers and folders, etc.) Whilst you will choose how much you need, expect to pay around £10 - £20 per year for these.
'Other'	Students are advised to have their own computer or laptop for undertaking their assignments. This is not however a requirement for access to the programme as the University does make such facilities available across all of its main sites and learning gateway buildings. Should students need to purchase a computer then an entry level laptop would suffice, £300 - 400. Whilst the programme is accredited by the Association for Project Management this does not provide any exemption to their examinations and qualifications nor does it provide membership. Should you wish to undertake these then the current costs are:          APM IC (£126 - £141) + VAT          APMP (£263 - £363) + VAT Student membership of the APM is recommended. This is free to join with an annual subscription of £23. Alternatively, Associate membership of APM is £112 to register plus £126 annual fee. Full membership of APM is £112 to join plus £156 annual fee. Students on the course may wish to sit external examinations and gain additional professional qualifications. These are not essential to progressing on the course. Examination fees are payable if students chose to take the external qualification, these are:          APMG Better Business Case Foundation qualification (£120 + VAT)          PRINCE2 Foundation (£100 + VAT)
