Radiography Practitioner and Radiography Assistant Practitioner Apprenticeships Pathway

Assistant Practitioner FdSc Health and Social Care Apprenticeship (Radiography)

FdSc (Health and Social Care generic content)

FdSc (Radiography specific content)

2 years

Course entry point suitable for an employee in a health and social care setting, for example, radiology support worker

Applicants will:
- Be working in a health and social care setting
- Be supported by an employer/line manager
- Have a qualification in English and Maths to GCSE levels A-C or Functional Skills Level 2
- Have an NVQ 3 or equivalent portfolio of evidence

Radiography BSc Apprenticeship

Radiography Assistant Practitioner Bridging Course

Year 3 Radiography BSc

September – January
February/March completion

Course entry point suitable for practising Assistant Practitioners in Diagnostic Radiography

Applicants will:
- Have an Assistant Practitioner foundation degree
- Be supported by an employer/line manager
- Be able to demonstrate evidence of prior successful study at underpinning levels

NB: It is possible to exit after Assistant Practitioner FdSc Apprenticeship (Radiography) is completed.